

Natal Diecast Model Collectors

Annual Rod Guérin Diorama Competition

26 November 2012

Report in autodealer West, 7 December 2012

High standard of dioramas on display

The Natal Diecast Model Collectors annual Rod Guérin Diorama competition entered a new dimension - lights and sound.

The theme for this year was "Any Subject" and Neville Geddes' entry "Christmas" had both lights and sound and won him Diorama of the Meeting, 1st Prize and the Rod Guérin floating trophy.

Second prize went to Kevin Taylor for his entry - "West Street in the 50s and 60s".

Third place went to Richard Hebbro for his entry "A Summer Day at Hebbro Haven Lake". Jewell Guérin was the club's guest and presented the prizes to the winners.

Also presented for the first time was the Geoff Sear Annual Floating Trophy for the Enthusiast of the Year. This award was presented to the club's chairman, Philip Ellis.

Neville Geddes with his Diorama entry "Christmas" It included a Church, playing Church music and a horrific car accident on the road. Neville won Diorama of the Meeting, first prize and the Rod Guérin Floating Trophy.

A close up of Kevin Taylor's "West Street 50s and 60s" which earned him a second place in the annual diorama competition.

Richard Hebbren's Diorama "A summer day at Hebbren haven Lake" that came third.